

Have you seen this plant on Kaua`i?

KISC needs your help!

We are aware of only one location where Elaeagnus triflora is growing on Kaua`i. Please contact KISC if you know of other locations of Elaeagnus triflora on Kaua`i.

Scientific Name: Elaeagnus triflora

Common Name: None Known

Origin: The Philippines

Propagation: Bird-dispersed seeds.

Elaeagnus triflora female with fruit.

Image of Elaeagnus triflora at known location.

Habit: Shrub climbing by attaching itself, as a vine.

Description: Scandent shrubs; young branches and buds silvery-brown. Leaves chartaceous, ovate or elliptic or nearly orbicular, 5-12 cm long, 4-6 cm wide, acute at the apex, obtuse or rounded at the base, the lateral veins 5-8 pairs; petioles 0.6-1.1 cm long. Flowers white, solitary on the long branches and 2-5 in a shortened raceme, cupulate; perianth-tube about 3.5 mm long, the lobes triangularly ovate; stamens 4, the anthers elliptic, about 1.5mm long, the filaments about 0.5mm long; style 2-2.5mm long, glabrous. Fruit broadly elliptic to elliptic, 1.8-2.0 cm long; seed 8-ribbed, 1.6-1.9 cm long.

Presence: One location known on Kaua`i consisting of one (1) plant along Kikala Rd, Kalaheo, HI 96741. Coordinates: UTM 446,650 and 2,425,636

Location Map:

(Click on map to interact)

Let us know by sending email to:

troylarsen@hawaiiintel.net

PO box 1998, Lihue, HI 96766

Phone: 808-246-0684 Fax: 808-632-0841

Web: KauaiISC.org